IN MEMORIAM

IN MEMORIAM
In sad but loving remembrance of our dear mother and grandmother, Mrs. A. B. Ferguson, who departed this life four years ago, April 7, 1948.
God gave us a wonderful mother,
One of the world's very best,
And when on earth her work was done,
God called her home to rest.
Before our eyes she faded,
Growing weaker day by day;
Patiently bearing her suffering,
Until God took her away.
We saw her slowly leave us,
And helplessly stood by;
And drained the cup of bitter grief
The day we saw her die.
Often to our hearts comes a bitter cry,
Why, oh why, did she die?
Then comes the answer soft and sweet,
She is not dead, she is just asleep.
May we live and serve our Master,
Walk the straight and narrow way,
So when life on earth is ended,
We will meet her in heaven some sweet day.
—Sadly missed by her Children
(11p) and Grandchildren.

IN MEMORY
In memory of my dear daughter, Ada Spiggle Garrett, on her 39th birthday, April 5.
There will never be another day as special as today,
For on this day I loved and lost you know that it's your birthday;
But we know that you are happy in God's beautiful mansion above,
And many angels whisper "Happy birthday," darling Ada and give you our love,
Loving thoughts will always linger and you are still our guiding star.
May we someday all be united,
When we have crossed that heavenly bar.
—Sadly missed by Mother,
(1tp) Sisters, and Brother.

Honored By Auto Association

DETROIT — John L. Thornhill, formerly of Appomattox, has been elected chairman of the Michigan Council, American Association Advertising Agencies, it was announced here today.

A vice president of Campbell-Ewald Co., Detroit-based national advertising agency, Thornhill is supervisor of the agency's manifold activities on the multi-million dollar Chevrolet account. He is concerned with advertising of Chevrolet cars and trucks in newspapers, magazines, television, radio, direct mail and outdoor posters, and with the Chevrolet merchandising program.

Thornhill served during the past 12 months as vice chairman of the Michigan Council, A.A.A.A. As chairman for the 1962-63 term he succeeds Charles F. Adams, vice-president of Macomber, Inc., and Adams, another large Detroit advertising agency.

The Michigan Council, A.A.A.A. consists of 21 member agencies in Detroit, Lansing, Grand Rapids, Kalamazoo, Midland, Birmingham and Bloomfield Hills. As chairman, Thornhill will be in charge of the Council's various programs designed to further high professional standards in the advertising business.

Thornhill is the son of John Thornhill of Appomattox and the late Mrs. Effie Wingfield Thornhill, a long-time resident of the Lynchburg area.

REVIVAL CONTINUES THROUGH SUNDAY

Rev. John S. Farrar, pastor of the Culpeper Baptist Church, Culpeper, Virginia, has been leading the services of Liberty Baptist Church. Interest and attendance has been good. He will bring his final message Friday night at 7:30 p.m. but the Revival will continue through Sunday night.

Record attendance in Sunday School and Training Union as well as the worship services are expected for this week-end.

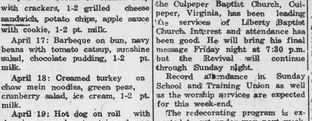
The redemption program is expected to get under way next week. This includes rebuilding the pulpit, choir loft, new lighting system, with fixtures, and complete painting. of the Sanctuary.

On Wednesday at 6:45 the Training Union Executive Committee and Mike Lopez R. A.'s will meet.

In most institutions, when it is time to stop work, work stops.

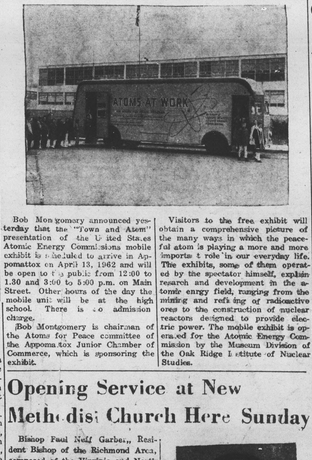
Reasonable recreation and pleasure should be by-products of living.

STAR CHAPTER FARMER



Star Chapter Farmer: Joel Carnefix, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Carnefix, Rt. 3, Appomattox, receives the Chapter Star Farmer award from his vocational agriculture instructor, W. L. Motley. Looking on is Frank C. Chuchek, principal of the Appomattox High School. The award was made during the annual Appomattox FFA banquet Thursday evening, March 29.

Peace Mobile Unit To Visit here



Bob Montgomery announced yesterday that the "Town and Atom" presentation of the United States Atomic Energy Commissions mobile exhibit is scheduled to arrive in Appomattox on April 13, 1962 and will be open to the public from 12:00 to 1:30 and 3:00 to 5:00 p.m. on Main Street. Other hours of the day the mobile unit will be at the high school. There is no admission charge.

Bob Montgomery is chairman of the Atoms for Peace committee of the Appomattox Junior Chamber of Commerce, which is sponsoring the exhibit.

Visitors to the free exhibit will obtain a comprehensive picture of the many ways in which the peaceful atom is playing a more and more important role in our everyday life. The exhibits, some of them operated by the spectator himself, explain research and development in the atomic energy field, ranging from the mining and refining of radioactive ores to the construction of nuclear reactors designed to provide electric power. The mobile exhibit is organized for the Atomic Energy Commission by the Museum Division of the Oak Ridge Institute of Nuclear Studies.

Opening Service at New Methodist Church Here Sunday

Bishop Paul Neff Garber, President Bishop of the Richmond Area, composed of the Virginia and North Carolina Annual Conferences, of Richmond, Virginia, will deliver the Sermon of Consecration for the New Memorial Methodist Church, Sunday, at 11:00 o'clock in the New Edifice at the Corner of Court Street and Virginia Avenue. Dr. Edgar M. Pots, District Superintendent of Lynchburg District, of Lynchburg, will join the pastor, Rev. Richard A. Berzzoli in the Consecration Service.

Bishop Garber's Sermon Subject will be "Our Historic Landmarks;" and Rev. E. Carl Maxwell, and Rev. L. F. Calahaam, former pastors of Memorial will also participate in the Service of Consecration. The Sanctuary and Chapel Choirs will present Anthems—"From Olivet He Rode" and "Psalm of Praise."

Bishop Garber was elevated to the episcopacy in 1946 from Dean of Professorship of Church History at Duke Divinity School, Durham, North Carolina. He was immediately appointed Resident Bishop of the Geneva, Switzerland Area, and served and Annual Confere ce in the adjacent Countries of Eastern Europe during the reconstruction period following the Seco d World War. Bishop Garber was transferred to the Richmond Area in 1951 and has served in this position continuously since that time.

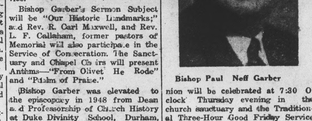
Memorial membership and congregation is ded honored to have the Bishop visit the new edifice at the time of the Consecration, and extends a hearty welcome to all of the Appomattox and surrounding communities to join them next Sunday for the commemoration of the fulfillment of an Adventure of Faith for the Glory of God and the Spiritual Blessings of mankind in this area of the Commonwealth.

The Chapel Junior and Cherub Choirs will present a special Palm Sunday Evening Service of Music in the Sanctuary at 7:30 o'clock. The service will feature special choir selections appropriate to the season, with the minister presiding for the service. Each choir will present four or more anthems in Worship for the Palm Sunday Commeration.

Wednesday, 6:45 P. M. —The Methodist Men will sponsor an Every Member Canvass - Visitation Covered-Dish Supper, as a part of the Annual Cultivation of Stewardship for the New Conference Year beginning June 1st.

A preaching Mission - Revival Service will be held in the church the week following Easter Sunday, with former ministers of Memorial delivering the messages each night of the week. Full details of the preaching mission revival service will be carried in this paper next week.

Maundy Thursday Holy Comm-



Bishop Paul Neff Garber

nion will be celebrated at 7:30 O' clock Thursday evening in the church sanctuary and the Traditional Three-Hour Good Friday Service will be conducted from Noon until Three O'Clock on Friday in the Sanctuary, with ministers of the community delivering the seven Messages. A detailed list of ministers participating will be published next week.
